PIGS BUST PIGHANDLER

by Stew Albert

"Mr. Albert, we have a warrant for your arrest," said the man from Chicago Police Intelligence. There was a pig buddy, two FBI agents and two Federal Marshals with him.

"Is it usual for the FBI to show up for misdemeanor arrests?" I asked.

"No," they replied.

I was being arrested at the door of the courtroom where all the brother conspirators are on trial. Marshals pulled me out with a "You got some friends here who want to talk."

The charge was skipping out on bail. It was bullshit—going back to when our candidate Pigasus and seven of us were busted for disorderly conduct. We paid a fine by mail and, with the exception of President Pig who died in the Illinois Electric chair for threatening the life of Spiro Agnew, we thought our debt to society had been cancelled.

"You can't skip bail on a charge that's been settled in court," I told a pig-filled elevator.

"You'll have to come with us," the elevator oinked back.

I figured the police car was driving me to 80 years in San Quentin. Six months ago this would have been a trip. Some Kafka absurdity to groove with and laugh at. Now, with police informers taking off their masks and charging us with god's death, it's easy to think a phoney arrest is setting you up for the real thing.

"Yeh, Albert planned to kill Alioto, the only reason it didn't come off was because he hadda go to Algeria to get orders from Cleaver," says some lying punk who I once maybe spent five minutes rapping with while we waited for a bus.

This reasonable paranoia went sizzling through my brain. Personally I know a couple of people, including New York "bomber" Jane Alpert who woke one morning to discover a close comrade staring back at them with handcuffs and FBI identification.

"You can't look at that, it's part of the Conspiracy defense," I told the pig who was reading and photostating my documents while I was being booked.

"You ain't no lawyer," he smiled.

There was a blackboard in the red squad office listing the names of the defendants, co-conspirators and some Weathermen. It looked like a round-up list.

"You know any of these guys?" the pig questioned.

"Yeah, me," I answered.

They put me back in a tiny jail cell. It was like I was parolled from Santa Rita for a couple of months and now the monsters wanted me back. So I was one more time eating dry baloney sandwiches and drinking coffee out of a tin cup.

The whole thing was petty harassment and I got out with sneering apologies five hours later.

It was both the most insignificant and frightening bust in my career as a human being. Amerika is a flowering-murderous police state, and each of us has an axe with his and her name on it.

It's getting very hard to be satiric these days, the only time I feel like shouting "Yippie" is at a pig's funeral.

E. Domestic Travel

An individual believed to be ALBERT, under the name S. ALBERT, left Portland, Oregon, at 7:30 p.m. December 12, 1969, aboard United Airlines Flight 331, scheduled to arrive at Oakland, California, at 9:08 p.m. U

The purpose of ALBERT's travelling to the San Francisco area was to meet with ABBIE HOFFMAN, who was in Berkeley on the weekend of December 13-14, 1969, and accompany him back to Chicago. U

ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN is publicly known as a founder of the Youth International Party, commonly known as the Yippies. He is currently on trial in U. S. District Court, Chicago, for alleged commission of certain offenses under the Federal Anti-Riot Laws. These alleged offenses occurred during the August, 1968, National Convention of the Democratic Party. U

In March, 1968, a leaflet appeared in New York City, which announced the formation of the Youth International Party (YIP). The leaflet stated that a group of 25 artists, writers, and musicians have agreed to participate in the founding of this Party. The leaflet stated that YIP will stage a massive youth festival in Chicago during the time of the Democratic National Convention. The leaflet urged people to join YIP in Chicago for a festival of youth, music, and theater. The leaflet did not announce any plans for YIP other than the Chicago activity. U

(u) X STEW ALBERT flew to Oakland, California, on the evening of January 2, 1970, on an unknown airline from Chicago, Illinois. Source stated that ALBERT flew to the San Francisco area for the purpose of arbitrating a factional split within the organizational structure of the "Berkeley Tribe." Source advised that ALBERT, who came to the San Francisco area by himself, will remain in the San Francisco area for about one week. The source believes that ALBERT borrowed the money for the flight from [redacted] one of the Chicago 7. b6 b7C

II. WRITINGS BY SUBJECT

In addition to the previously reproduced and synopsised articles written by the Subject, an article appeared on page 5 of the December 5-11, 1969, edition of "The Berkeley Tribe" entitled "At The Flick" by STEW ALBERT. This article concerned the Chicago conspiracy trial and is critical of "the establishment's" policies. U

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

A source advised on August 1, 1960, the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was formed approximately in the early part of 1938, and the Oakland Branch of the SWP was formed in the latter part of 1938.

A second source advised on October 26, 1959, that the name of the Oakland Branch of the SWP was changed to the Oakland - Berkeley Branch of the SWP.

A third source advised on April 17, 1969, that the San Francisco Branch and the Oakland - Berkeley Branch of the SWP follow the policies and directives of the National SWP with which they are affiliated.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

A source has advised that the Students For A Democratic Society (SDS), as presently regarded, came into being at a founding convention held June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy" the line of the national leadership has revealed a growing Marxist-Leninist adherence which currently calls for the building of a revolutionary youth movement. Concurrently, the program of SDS has evolved from civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war stance to an advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist position. China, Vietnam, and Cuba are regarded as the leaders of world-wide struggles against United States imperialism whereas the Soviet Union is held to be revisionist and also imperialist.

At the June, 1969, SDS National Convention, Progressive Labor Party (PLP) forces in the organization were expelled. As a result, the National Office (NO) group maintained its National Headquarters at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and the PLP faction set up headquarters in Cambridge, Massachusetts. This headquarters subsequently moved to Boston. Each group elected its own national officers, which include three national secretaries and a National Interim Committee of eight. Both the NO forces and the PLP forces claim to be the true SDS. Both groups also print their versions of "New Left Notes" which sets forth the line and the program of the particular faction. The NO version of "New Left Notes" was recently printed under the title "The Fire Next Time" to achieve a broader mass appeal.

Two major factions have developed internally within the NO group, namely, the Weatherman or Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM) I faction, and the RYM II faction. Weatherman is action-oriented upholding CASTRO's position that the duty of revolutionaries is to make revolution. Weatherman is regarded by RYM II as an adventuristic, elitist faction which denies the historical role of the working class as the base for revolution. RYM II maintains that revolution, although desired, is not possible under present conditions, hence emphasizes organizing and raising the political consciousness of the working class upon whom they feel successful revolution depends. Although disclaiming control and domination by the Communist Party, USA, leaders in these two factions have in the past proclaimed themselves to be communists and to follow the precepts of a Marxist-Leninist philosophy, along pro-Chinese communist lines.

A second source has advised that the PLP faction which is more commonly known as the Worker Student Alliance is dominated and controlled by members of the PLP, who are required to identify themselves with the pro-Chinese Marxist-Leninist philosophy of the PLP. They advocate that an alliance between workers and students is vital to the bringing about of a revolution in the United States.

APPENDIX

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

SDS regions and university and college chapters, although operating under the outlines of the SDS National Constitution, are autonomous in nature and free to carry out independent policy reflective of local conditions. Because of this autonomy internal struggles reflecting the major factional interests of SDS have occurred at the chapter level since the beginning of the 1969-70 school year.

A characterization of PLP is attached.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

"The New York Times" city edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962, by Milton Rosen and Mortimer Scheer after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

A source advised on June 3, 1968, that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31 to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism. This is to be accomplished through the Party's over-all revolutionary strategy of raising the consciousness of the people and helping to provide ideological leadership in the working class struggle for state power.

The source also advised that at the Second National Convention [redacted] was unanimously re-elected [redacted] of the PLP and [redacted] were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor", a bimonthly magazine; "World Revolution", a quarterly periodical; and "Challenge-Desafio", a monthly newspaper.

The April, 1969, issue of "Challenge-Desafio" sets forth that "Challenge is dedicated to the peoples fight for a new way of life--where the working men and women control their own homes and factories; where they themselves make up the entire government on every level and control the schools, courts, police and all institutions which are now used to control them."

Source advised on May 8, 1969, that the PLP utilizes an address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn, New York, and also utilizes an office in Room 617, 1 Union Square West, New York, New York.

[redacted] advised that during December of 1969, her son was contacted by a person connected with the Vietnam Moratorium and was requested to arrange for an appearance of STEWART ALBERT at the high school. U

The school turned down the request to have ALBERT speak, [redacted]

[redacted] On December 10, 1969, twelve high school students gathered [redacted] nine of whom were females. A man identifying himself as STEWART ALBERT appeared in the company of a [redacted] U know the personalities or issues involved in the conspiracy trial. U

ALBERT was observed by an Agent of the FBI in attendance at the "Chicago Seven" trial in Chicago, Illinois on February 12, 1970. U

Subject was subsequently observed by Bureau Agents on February 12, 1970, in the vicinity of the Federal Building, Chicago, Illinois, in the company of [redacted] well-known Hollywood movie actor, and other unidentified individuals believed to be members of the "Chicago Seven" legal office staff. U ILL. b6 b7C

On April 22, 1970, ALBERT appeared at an "Earth Day" Rally held at Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona. The rally was sponsored by a campus group calling itself the Free Speech Movement, (FSM), which was formed for the stated purpose of working to gain adoption by the University of demands which are constitutionally delegated to the students. U

ALBERT spoke as part of the campus activities organized to focus attention on pollution and the ways of improving the environment. His comments dealt primarily with pollution and other topics that were related to the "Earth Day" activities with the exception of one reference to the forthcoming murder trial in New Haven Connecticut of [redacted] of the Black Panther Party. ALBERT predicted that if [redacted] is convicted, considerable violence would take place. U b6 b7C

The Black Panther Party is characterized in the appendix attached hereto. U

ALBERT also made a comment to the effect that some riots are beneficial and as an example he said that the "Chicago Seven" would still be in the penitentiary if it were not for the riots that occurred and the threat of additional riots. U

There were no incidents and no violence developed during the rally, which was attended by approximately 300 persons, many of whom appeared to be high school students on the campus to celebrate "Earth Day". U

D. Political Activity

On March 20, 1970, ALBERT paid a filing fee in the amount of $551.76 to the Alameda County Clerk's Office, Oakland, California. This fee, for which the Subject received receipt number E-5196, was to enable ALBERT to run for the office of Sheriff of Alameda County. U

[redacted] on

On March 20, 1970, the Subject filed a "Declaration of Candidacy" with the County Clerk's Office of Alameda County, Oakland, California. In this document, ALBERT declared himself "a candidate for nomination to the office of Sheriff to be voted for at the primary election to be held June 2, 1970". On this declaration he listed his address as 2917 Ashby Avenue, Berkeley, California and his occupation as a journalist and his employer as "The Berkeley Tribe", 1708 Grove Street, Berkeley, California. U

In a space where the candidate can set forth any qualifications he possesses for the office he is seeking, ALBERT inserted, "I served 65 days in Santa Rita Jail for political offenses and was cracked over the head by an Alameda County cop". U

[redacted] on
4/2/70

The Subject attended a "Stew Albert for Alameda County Sheriff" meeting on March 29, 1970, which was attended by approximately 35 individuals. At this meeting, ALBERT said that he wanted to organize the prisoners at Santa Rita Rehabilitation Center, Pleasanton, California, and stage a strike to put an end to the use of guns at the jail. U

In an article on page 1 of the March 24, 1970 issue of the "Berkeley Daily Gazette", a daily newspaper published at Berkeley, California, it was set out that the Subject was "campaigning on a program advocating armed U self defense for citizens against police". The article goes on to say that ALBERT promises, if elected, to "arrest (incumbent) [redacted] and charge him with murder". ALBERT is quoted as saying that "the only way for people of all races and ages to protect themselves is by arming themselves and by forming citizen militias. The greatest preserver and creator of freedom is democratic self defense from the police". U

In an article on page 5 of the March 21, 1970 issue of the "San Francisco Chronicle", a daily newspaper published in San Francisco, California, ALBERT described himself as a "yippie emeritus", and a "certified public nuisance". ALBERT is quoted in the article as saying, "The first time I voted, I voted for LBJ. The second time I voted for Jerry Rubin. The third time I voted for myself - its sort of a history of the movement". U

JERRY RUBIN was a defendant in the "Chicago Seven" conspiracy trial. U

An article appearing on page 1 of the June 4, 1970 issue of the "Berkeley Daily Gazette", set forth the results of the primary election held on June 2, 1970. In the race for Sheriff, Incumbent [redacted] received 176,971 votes and STEWART ALBERT received 65,198 votes. ALBERT, trying to explain his unexpected showing against [redacted] said, "It was a real psychological satisfaction for me to expose how many people hate [redacted] He said the large number of votes cast for him represent "anti-police sentiment". ALBERT said that he ran his entire campaign on $70 and further admitted that most of those voting for him did not know who he was. U

b6

The article points out that ALBERT concentrated his campaign at the Santa Rita Rehabilitation Center, where he leafleted visitors to the jail every Sunday. ALBERT told the "Gazette" that he did know precinct work, had no billboard signs, and the only major outlay was the filing fee. U

II. WRITINGS BY THE SUBJECT

In the May 11, 1970 issue of "Newsweek" magazine an article concerning new left activities appeared in the national affairs section. Contained in the article, on page 35, was a quote from ALBERT. This is set out as follows: U

"Some people think the revolution should get white middle class people to relate to the working class. Others think we should attack physically the institutions of the establishment. Others think we should create a separate culture. We have debates about who is the revolutionary class and how they should organize and who they should organize. But we all agree on one thing: the people decide history. And when the people start moving, we'll see who's right and no hard feelings. U

In an article entitled "Weatherman Goes for Weapons" which appeared in the February 1, 1970 issue of "Combat" magazine, ALBERT's name was mentioned in connection with a training school for revolutionaries which was found in Berkeley, California in 1969, by ALBERT and [redacted] "Chicago Seven" defendant. U b6 b7C

"Combat" Magazine is published twice monthly by Communications Distribution, Inc., Box 182, Murray Hill Station, New York City, New York. U

Students for a Democratic Society is characterized in the appendix attached hereto. U

[redacted] on
2/20/70

b2
b7D

The following are synopses of articles written by ALBERT, all of which appeared in "The Berkeley Tribe" on the date and page indicated. U

January 24 - 30, 1970, page 5

In an article entitled, "Piece Now", ALBERT discusses his relationship with ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, and how the International Liberation School was formed in Berkeley, California. He urges readers to sign up for classes at the International Liberation School, which started February 1, 1970. U

ELDRIDGE CLEAVER is nationally known Black Panther Party leader and is presently a Federal fugitive residing outside of the United States. U

The International Liberation School maintains offices at the People's Office, 1925 Grove Street, Berkeley, California and conducts classes in revolutionary theory and tactics. U

February 27 - March 6, 1970, Page 5

In an article entitled, "Poisoned Feast", ALBERT discussed the "Chicago Seven" trial. He said at one point that "there was so much rule-breaking and humor it was hard to believe that this wasn't some surrealistic flick which would take about six months to make and then everyone would go home. At times I thought Charlie Chaplin was playing both the yippies and the Great Orange Julius. U

March 6 - 13, 1970, Page 9

In an article entitled, "Leary Jail and Bad Vibes", ALBERT praises [redacted] who is currently serving a jail term for possession of narcotics. ALBERT stated that "to make an American revolution, we will need both [redacted] asset beauty and a 12 gage shotgun". ALBERT characterizes [redacted] as a political prisoner and urges that he be freed from custody. U

b6

May 29 - June 5, 1970, Page 5

In an article entitled, "Moscow of the Youth Revolution", ALBERT states that "Berkeley used to be the where-its-at center of the American revolution". However, now that revolutionary activity has spread across the nation, Berkeley activists have become "comfortable, liberal, and alienated. Berkeley is too satisfied with a half-life trip". U

III. MISCELLANEOUS

A. "Berkeley Tribe"

The "Berkeley Tribe" is one of the so-called "underground" newspapers, published each Friday in Berkeley by a group of persons self-described as the "Red Mountain Tribe." The paper is devoted to coverage of the entire spectrum of New Left and related activity. U

STEW ALBERT, who formerly was on the staff of the "Berkeley Tribe" has been gone from Berkeley for some time and is not expected to return to Berkeley in the near future. 1)

b7D

o STEWART ALBERT furnished the "Berkeley Tribe" the following story on October 13, 1970. ALBERT authored this story and requested it be in the next issue the "Berkeley Tribe." U
The story is set forth as follows:

"TIMOTHY LEARY is in Algeria. I last saw him on a very quiet and sunny beach. He and ROSEMARY told me to give you their love and best wishes for revolutionary victory. U

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"I was in Algeria to get political advice from ELDRIDGE CLEAVER and to make contact for the Youth International Party. U

"ELDRIDGE and FIELD MARSHAL D. C. were the hosts but it was time to leave and my suitcase was packed. 'Hey STEW, we can't let you go, TIM LEARY is here, ELDRIDGE announced. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ U

"My mind was blown. The best dreams a revolutionary madman could have had suddenly became true flesh. The psychedelic revolution broken out of jail and now in the third world making common cause with a black gun. U

" 'Hey man, did you levitate over the fence'? I asked. U

"LEARY was in my arms. He was disguised as a completely ordinary pig businessman, but the twinkle in his eyes was a dead giveaway. Fortunately the FBI isn't trained to read twinkles. U

" 'STEW, this is so beautiful.' 'You know last time I saw ELDRIDGE was on an airplane. He told me to stay out of jail. I should have listened to him.' U

" 'Hey crime partner, how you doing'? ELDRIDGE extended his hand and two people who should have gotten together a thousand years ago began exchanging jailhouse memories. U

" 'All that propaganda about my digging jail as righteous KARMA was just bullshit! Dr. TIM declared 'We are trying to convince the pigs I was a model prisoner so they wouldn't be afraid to turn their backs I intended to escape from the first day. U

" 'The pigs have absolutely no idea how I got out, and I don't want to give it away but I'll tell you this, I had to lift weights everyday to pull it off. I realized my freedom was the only thing I wanted and was U willing to kill for it. The need for armed revolution becomes obvious when you spend several months of your existence living among pigs.' U

" 'The Weatherman drove my getaway car, but I completely supported them before I knew they were involved in my escape.' U

" 'Hey, LEARY, did you spend much time with the Weatherman'? ELDRIDGE inquired.

" 'Yes, we turned on a lot and ROSEMARY and I went to see "Woodstock" with BERNADINE DOHRN and JEFF JONES. We were stoned out of our mind.' U

"Dr. TIMOTHY LEARY, former Harvard professor and political prisoner, has been given political asylum by the Algerian government. His request for protection in exile was backed completely by the Black Panther Party. LEARY listed himself as a member of the Youth International Party and the Weatherman. U

US
" 'The same pigs who wanted to ice me are after LEARY. They hate him because he makes their children rebel. Kids want to make love and not kill niggers. That's a crime in Babylon,' ELDRIDGE rapped to an Algerian friend. U

"~~ROSEMARY LEARY~~ working for TIM on the outside has gone through changes. U

" 'BERNADINE taught me a lot about women's liberation,' ROSEMARY exuded. 'I want to go back to Amerika, I want to take revenge and fight in the underground.' U

" 'What is TIM LEARY going to do in a revolutionary African country'? U

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

SF 100-56066

DEJ:lcj

" 'I will write a book about my prison life and conversion. I'll do a regular column for the underground press and I want to go to Hanoi. Naturally I will accept totally the dicipline of the Black Panther Party.' U

" 'We used to quote from the I CHING,' ROSEMARY stated, 'but now it's going to be KIM IL SUNG and the thought of Chairman MAO.' U
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"ROSEMARY and TIM will be renting a house in the Algerian countryside. They would like their friends to visit them but time is limited so write first. U

"Our revolution has taken an inevitable turn. U

"In Algeria the gun protects the flower. U

"In Algeria the flower becomes the gun." U

ALBERT also remakred that [ ] was bald but that this fact should not be included in the story. ALBERT stated that the [ ] have plenty of "acid." ALBERT also stated that his remark in the story about being in Algeria to get political advice from CLEAVER and to make contact for the Youth International Party was "...jive but I've got to say it." Black Panther Party for Self Defense

According to the official newspaper of the BPP, the BPP was started during December 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by [redacted] [redacted] HUEY P. NEWTON, Minister of Defense, BPP.

The official newspaper, called "The Black Panther," regularly states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to as "pigs" who should be killed. b6 b7C

The newspaper, in its issue of September 7, 1968, had an article [redacted] This article ended with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere." ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The BPP newspaper, issue of October 5, 1968, had an article introduced with the following statement: "We will not dissent from American government. We will overthrow it."

[redacted] BPP, in a speech at the San Francisco Polo Field on November 15, 1969, said "We will kill Richard Nixon."

In the issue of April 25, 1970, the BPP newspaper had an article [redacted] as follows:

"The only way to make this racist US government administer justice to the people it is oppressing, is...by taking up arms against this government, killing the officials, until the reactionary forces...are dead, and those that are left turn their weapons on their superiors, thereby passing revolutionary judgement against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U.S. government."

The BPP Headquarters is located at 1046 Peralta Street, Oakland, California. Branches of the BPP, and Committees to Combat Fascism, under control of the BPP, have been established in various locations in the USA.

On October 17, 1969, [REDACTED] who was active in various New York based radical groups during the period 1967 to November, 1969, advised that the MSB was organized by ABBIE HOFFMAN.
